Germany Officially Surrenders No Violence Or Bloodshed As Military Balks Solons

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—(By the United Press)—The end of Germany's passive resistance to the Franco-Belgian occupation of the Ruhr was proclaimed officially today.

The proclamation declared the government will not sign any agreement tending away any portion of the nation from the reich.

The end of resistance came after nine months.

It was Germany's admission that she has lost the war after the war, and has again been brought to her knees by France.

The reich's government now can only await the reaction in allied capitals and in hope for leniency from Premier Poincare.

It was assumed copies of the proclamation with official information that Germany has surrendered will be dispatched immediately to Paris, London and Brussels.

The Stresemann government will attempt to save its face by complete and dignified admission of capitulation.

There will be no winning.

The government feels that the German people have fought an honorable battle and lost.

They must now accept whatever consequences has in store for them.

Issuance of the proclamation today came after the cabinet's decision last Wednesday that unconditional surrender must come because of financial conditions.

With resistance costing upward of five million dollars a week and marks so valueless that quotations were stopped by many banks the government had no other choice but surrender.

First the Ruhr and Rhine leaders were called in and told of the decision.

They assented when they saw further resistance impossible.

Yesterday the chancellor decided to support the decision.

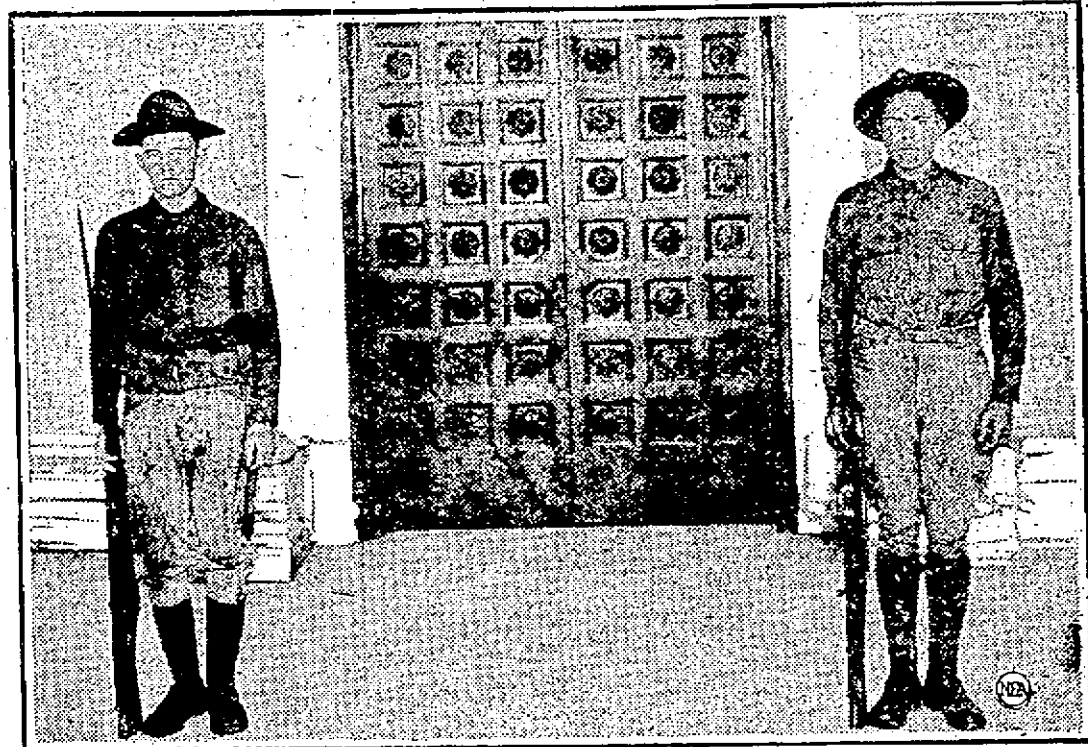

The cabinet last night completed final draft of proclamation given to the world today.

The population seemed to take the first news of defeat ungraciously.

Referring to the people, the people accepted loss of the post war fight against France as merely another chapter in sequence of events which has carried Germany from her proud position of 1914 to the sickest country.

SEPARATISTS MOVEMENT GROWS IN RHINELAND

BERLIN, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Not the least of the German government's worries—at present come from the alarming reports from the Rhineland where the separatists are showing increased activities. They now have created a "general directorate" which has convoked a grand rally to be held at Dusseldorf next Sunday for the purpose of proclaiming a republic.

The French regime is said here to have agreed to place seventy railway trains at the disposal of the separatists who believe the situation created by the German government's abandonment of passive resistance offers a suitable moment for the accomplishment of their designs.

The separatists have organized a special police force which is to be clothed in green uniforms similar to those worn by the Prussian "Green Police."

The German press in the Rhineland admits the gravity of the situation arising from the secession sentiment and declares this will materially complicate the impending negotiations with France. It gives warning that the strength of the movement must not be underestimated.

"Rhinelanders, be on your guard! The Cologne Gazette captures its editorial, which remarks that the veil of secrecy with which the separatists have attempted to conceal their machinations now has been removed."

Rebellious Outbreaks Continue In Europe

BERLIN, September 26.—(By the United Press)—Police this afternoon arrested a number of reactionary leaders who apparently were preparing a coup d'etat against the government following Chancellor Stresemann's proclamation announcing abandonment of resistance in the Ruhr. Simultaneously Munich dispatches said a socialist newspaper there had obtained and published secret mobilization orders of the Bavarian fascists, calling for a general concentration of the Fascist battle band for Thursday and Friday.

LONDON, September 26.—(By the United Press)—Bloody fighting continues in many parts of Bulgaria as the government moves to win in the down the Agrarian Communists' rebellion, the Sofia correspondent of The Daily Express telegraphs today. The rebels lost 400 killed in unsuccessful attack on Sambeir.

PARIS, September 26.—(By the United Press)—Grave troubles are expected at Ziefeld, following cessation of passive resistance in the Ruhr, the Mayence correspondent of Le Journal telegraphed today. A strong guard was placed about the city hall. Groups of miners armed with iron bars are ravaging the country side for food, following a lockout in the mines, the correspondent declared.

Klan To Be Issue At Political Sessions

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright 1923)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The Ku Klux Klan issue will inevitably be an issue before the Republican and Democratic National conventions.

Politicians' reluctance to have come to that conclusion after receiving reports from various parts of the Union. It will be agitated not by those who favor the principles of Ku Kluxism, but by those who oppose the idea. And naturally the opponents will not be permitted to have their own way, for both conventions will number among their delegates men who are actually affiliated with the K. K. K.

The difficulty of avoiding or sidestepping the issue has been fully discussed in the inner councils of political leaders, but it seems apparent that the various people who are well known to the Ku Klux Klan will demand denunciatory resolutions as the price of their continued support.

The situation in the Republican party arose out of the fact that the Republican vote in some of the pivotal Northern states has been increased since 1920 by hundreds of thousands of voters, who have migrated Northward. They are demanding that the Republican

Democrats Claiming Victory In Election

SPOKANE, WASH., Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Incomplete returns from all counties in the Fifth Washington District, showed Judge Sam B. Hill, Democrat leading State Senator Charles E. Myers, Republican, by a plurality of 359 votes. This is the first congressional election since Mr. Coolidge became president. The vote over the entire district was light, in spite of the pleas and labors of both parties for a heavy turnout, fewer than 42 per cent of the registered voters appearing at the polls.

The fight which was waged over national issues, and received the attention of political leaders, is not yet over.

STATE HOUSE, OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Oklahoma's "rebel" legislators were dispersed by the military at noon today when they attempted to convene a special session of the lower house to seek the impeachment of Governor J. C. Walton.

Colonel William S. Key, military commander of Oklahoma county, at 11:58 this morning read to the legislators the order of Governor J. C. Walton, forbidding the assembly of "any or all members of the legislature during the present period of unrest."

There was no violence or bloodshed. The house members gathered before the entrance to the house chamber were given a firm and curt order by Colonel W. S. Key, military commander of the city, not to attempt to assemble.

Colonel Key ordered the legislators to disperse immediately and refused to amplify or explain his order in any manner when approached by leaders of the lower house.

The law makers began to disperse immediately without any show of resistance to the order of the military commander.

At 12:05 p. m. all of the legislators had left the corridor outside the house chamber and the military were at command of the building. Colonel Key read his orders to the assembly outside the house chamber.

There was a momentary pause, armed officers moving through the crowd barked out orders to "leave the building" and without a word the house members began to depart from the rotunda. Within five minutes the scene of the clash between the solons and the military was cleared.

The call for the session was formally filed with the secretary of state by the legislators. It then bore sixty-five signatures.

Colonel W. A. Sneed, secretary of state, declared he would file the document in the archives of the state where it will be a great part of the state history—"the most glorious public document in the history of Oklahoma, a new Magna Charta of American liberties, and a rededication of the state to the principles of constitutional government."

Members of the legislature went from the capitol to their headquarters in a hotel. They were met by about ten of Governor Walton's armed operatives in civilian clothes and informed that there could be no session of the house of representatives in the hotel. Several leaders of the movement left immediately for another hotel.

"We have met the enemy and we are temporarily bafled, but the meeting of the legislature has just started" W. D. McFee, leader in the special session call, declared after the attempt to meet at the capitol failed.

W. E. Disney, representative from Muskogee county, declared the legislators will be in Oklahoma City "three months". A meeting of the house legal committee was in progress at a downtown hotel within an hour after the legislators were dispersed.

It was indicated that a statement would be forthcoming later in the day.

It was believed another attempt to convene the session would be made at once. Several alleged secret operatives of the governor were ordered from the legislative headquarters at the hotel by E. A. Singletary, representative from Oklahoma county. They left without protest. None of them was known to the legislators.

Key Breaks Up the Meeting
The atmosphere was charged to a fever pitch, Charles S. Brice, speaker pro tem of the house, attempted to call the house members to order in the corridors of the capitol.

Brice had barely raised his hand and said: "Gentlemen of the house"—when Colonel Key, stepping up, broke in and in loud voice called on everyone in the crowd to remain motionless. He then read the following order prohibiting the session:

"Pursuant to special executive military order No. 1, by Governor J. C. Walton, of Oklahoma, and Commander-in-chief of military forces of said state addressed to the adjutant general, forbidding the gathering or assembly in a pretended session of any or all members of the Oklahoma legislature at the state house in Oklahoma City at 12 o'clock noon of September 26, 1923, or at any time or place within the state during the present period of unrest, it becomes my duty, by direction of the adjutant general to enforce the provisions of the governor's order, now therefore, I, William S. Key, as military commander of the district of Oklahoma county, forbid this attempted meeting and direct that you disperse immediately."

When Colonel Key had completed the reading of his order, D. A. Stovall, attorney, representative from Muskogee county, asked the military commander if he had the full force of the State National Guard behind the order. Colonel Key made no reply.

W. E. Disney, representative from Muskogee, then asked if the gathering (Continued on Page 9)

Defense In Ward Case Submits No Testimony

WHITE PLAINS, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The defense in the state abruptly ended its prosecution came today at the trial of Walter S. Ward, charged with murdering Clarence Peters, of Haverhill, Mass., when the defense announced to the court that it rested its case without submitting any testimony.

After announcing that the defense rested, Isaac N. Mills, chief counsel for the defense, renewed his motion that the indictment be dismissed and the jury be instructed to return a verdict of acquittal but Justice Warner again denied all motions. Mr. Mills then began the summation of the defense.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Governor McCray has requested Clyde A. Wall, Republican State Chairman, to delay the meeting of the state committee called for Monday to consider the financial affairs of the executive and what course the party should pursue in the matter. Mr. Wall, the governor explained, that he would be required to be out of the city Monday because of some private business of his and wanted the session delayed about ten days.

Mr. Wall said he would consider the matter. The state chairman said the governor expressed displeasure at the procedure of the state committee in the proposed deliberations about his personal financial affairs.

RUSSIA HESITATES TO BRING REVOLT IN GERMANY; BEHIND BULGARIAN REBELLION

MOSCOW, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Berlin dispatches indicating the further readiness of the German government, to capitulate, have strengthened the realization here that not since the soviet's desire to sign the peace of Brest-Litovsk, has the cause of the proletarian revolution faced such a difficult problem.

Told by the German communists who are here to plead their cause personally that the iron is hot in Berlin and that it must be struck quickly before a fascist settlement snatches it from the forge and plunges it into the cold bath of reaction from which it may not emerge for years. Russia hesitates to let the hammer strike.

The hammer is busy forging the internal reconstruction of the country. Furthermore, the hands that wield it are uncertain whether the German iron is strong enough to stand the blow or whether the capitalist blacksmiths in Poland, France and elsewhere, would not seize the iron and forge a sword with which they would attack Russia.

The hammer is still poised in mid-air. No official information, whatsoever, is available as to the conference among the Russian and German communists in Moscow during the past few days. However, it may be deduced from the printed speeches and guarded editorials that the situation is that the German communists foresee a reactionary settlement of the Ruhr problems, bringing the possibility of temporary tranquility in Germany and hence lessening the chance of an immediate proletarian revolution which they are confident would otherwise come in a few weeks.

A fascist Germany would be not only a menace to German communist hopes, but also to Russia; hence the German want to accept the immediate opportunity, believing it would possibly succeed, although realizing that probably Poland, France and other nations would attack from the outside.

The Germans here assert that the Berlin and Bavarian fascists would not mind joining the communists over the present German government, and then dealing with the communists later. The latter, too, are undecided whether to strike first or to take advantage of any fascist move to the outside.

Bulgaria To Fight To Last Ditch
SOFIA, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Bulgaria will fight to the last ounce of her strength not only her own battle, but the world's struggle against communism," said Premier Zankoff today in an interview.

He asserted that communism, after shattering civilization in Russia, was trying to do Bulgaria a similar injury.

"The third international," he said, "plans to extend sovietism to the other Balkan states and then to sweep westward. In spite of our weakness we are determined to win the struggle or die in the attempt."

Newly enlisted militia is being rapidly armed. Fighting between the government forces and communists acting in conjunction with agrarians, continued throughout Monday.

Poincare Waiting To See If Germany Means Business

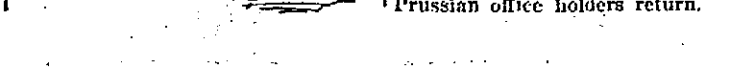

PARIS, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Premier Poincare who returned to the foreign office today from a rest at his summer home, is awaiting the actual cessation of resistance in the Ruhr and compliance with the orders of the authority of occupation before forming an opinion as to the significance of political events in Germany. This was made plain today by an official close to the premier.

Premier Poincare has not yet satisfied himself that resistance is certain to be abandoned and he will make no move respecting relations with Germany until the change in the German attitude becomes a demonstrated fact. It will then be in order for the mine operators and heads of the other industries in the Ruhr Valley to conform to the program of the authorities of occupation. If this is done the way will then be open for Germany to make proposals. It is expected in French official circles that the Germans will insist strongly on the return of the expelled functionaries to the Ruhr and the Rhineland.

The French government it is declared, will stoutly resist the return of the functionaries who were expelled for acts of sabotage and encouraging rebellion against the authorities of occupation. Furthermore, the French authorities in the occupied area have reported that there is no particular desire on the part of the population of either the Ruhr or the Rhineland to see the Prussian office holders return.

Press Strike Fading Out

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—Following the announcement of George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Pressmen's and Assistants' Union, that a strike never has been won in America against newspapers when such strikes have been inaugurated in violation of contracts or in face of a tender of conciliation by publishers, the publishers of New York's dailies announced today that conditions in their press rooms were nearing normal and that many out-of-town pressmen were arriving to take the places of strikers.

Greece Must Pay Italy

PARIS, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of Ambassadors today reached a decision on the question of the payment of the fifty million lire indemnity by Greece to Italy. The decision will be kept secret until Greece can be notified. It is understood, however, that the council found that Greece had been dilatory in seeking the perpetrators of the Janina crime and hence that the money was payable to Italy immediately.

Attempt To Blackmail

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press)—An alleged plot by blackmailers to extort $100,000 from John B. Drake, one of the owners of the Drake and Blackstone Hotels here, has been known through the activities of four post office department inspectors working with city and hotel detectives.

Threats of death if their demands were not complied with were made by the blackmailers to Mr. Drake, and to his son, John B. Drake, Jr., sent during the last two weeks, it was said. One decoy package containing paper was sent in reply to one of the threats, resulting in letters coming through the mail making further demands.

Grotto Lease Hall; To Give Minstrel

That some wonderful times are ahead for the Prophets of Yezigard Grotto the coming winter, was clinched at a meeting held last evening and which was presided over by Monarch William E. Zottmann. Not only was a large crowd present, but the interest manifested in the winter activities of the organization, presages a season of wonderful activities, which will, no doubt, result in great growth for this organization. To begin with, the Grotto will, in a spirit of unanimity acted favorably on the recommendation of Monarch Zottmann in leasing the top floor of the Damarin building, where all ceremonies will be held hereafter. The floor is one of the largest in the city, and steps will be taken at once to install a stage and make all necessary repairs. There is no question but the improvements will be completed in plenty of time to permit of the holding of the fall ceremonial on November 15, when a class of not less than 100 will be conducted across the River Styx. That the class will be the largest in the history of local Masonry was shown by the interest created in the naming of Prophets Underwood and Hannah as captains. These two will divide the Grotto into two hostile camps and it will then be a fight as to which will win.

It was decided at the meeting to hold a minstrel show some time during the winter. This affair will doubtless be given in the high school auditorium, and will continue over two nights at least. While it was decided to hold dances, in the new hall, Second and Court streets, this winter, the Grotto took a big step forward when a committee was named to arrange for the holding of evening luncheons in the banquet hall of the Temple. These luncheons will probably be held on a certain evening each week, to be served by the ladies of the Eastern Star. They will be along the same lines as characterizes the weekly meetings of the Rotarians, Kiwanians and Exchange clubs—programs featuring each meeting. The committee will make a report at the earliest possible moment, and it is thought the plan will meet with instant favor. All in all, there is much activity ahead for the Prophets of Portsmouth and vicinity are invited to this event which is interesting.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized in St. Mary's church, Tuesday morning at six o'clock, when Miss Clara Steadly became the bride of Mr. Frank Busl. The impressive ceremony was read by Rev. T. A. Goebel, who also officiated at the Nuptial Mass which followed, while Miss Margaret Schumann, the talented organist, played beautiful and appropriate music. The bride, who is an attractive brunette, was attired in a beautiful blue crepe-back satin gown, with corresponding accessories, while a corsage of American Beauty roses completed her costume. They were attended by the groom's niece, Miss Gertrude Kirby, and Mr. Joseph Schumann. Miss Kirby wore a modish frock of gold figured crepe with accessories of a corresponding shade, and a corsage of Ophelia roses. Immediately after the church ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Mary Louise to the bride and groom and members of the immediate family. A reception for the many friends of the bride and groom was held at the home of Mr. Busl's father, where the bride and groom will reside for the present.

The Women's Bible class of the First Baptist church held an interesting meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Estella Bennett, 1818 Twelfth street, with eighteen members present. After the meeting the members surprised their pastor, Rev. H. Stewart Tillis, with a handkerchief shower, and a large birthday cake, mounted with forty-one candles, which he was required to blow out. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. John Long. Those present at the meeting included Mrs. Charles Rohlfes, Mrs. William Harley, Mrs. Wade Vance, Mrs. Eli Coriell, Mrs. Eugene Gower, Mrs. Barney Donley, Mrs. Charles Sparks, Mrs. Anna Coriell, Miss Rose Ashbury, Mrs. Ella Fulton, Mrs. John Burton, Mrs. Harvey Chambers, Mrs. John Long, Mrs. Estelle Bennett, Mrs. Sara Warnock and Rev. H. Stewart Tillis.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will meet at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Philanthia Class Room, and it is important that every member be present.

State Officials To Visit Game Preserve To Discuss Many Needed Improvements

Governor Via Donahay, State Director of Agriculture C. V. Truax and State Highway Commissioner Boulay, are expected to visit the Theodore Roosevelt Game Preserve within the next month in connection with plans under consideration for the improvement of the roads in the Preserve. The state officials will also consider the probable purchase of additional lands for the Preserve and, other needed improvements on the vast tract already under the care of the state. Manager Adam Frick of the Chamber of Commerce, and Frank Voorhees, care-taker of the Game Preserve, visited Columbus yesterday and held conferences with the various officials relative to improvements on the Preserve. The aim of the local men was to have the state officials promise aid in the matter of improving the main roadway from Turkey Creek to the lodge in the Preserve. The State Highway Department has consented to the use of several steel bridges taken from the Atlantic-Pacific highway west of Friendship where they are being replaced by concrete structures, on the Preserve road but it is necessary to have funds for the moving of these bridges and new foundations. The state officials yesterday assured the local men that it is highly probable that funds can be secured for this work. Later it is hoped that a way may be found whereby the state could assist the county in putting the roads in the Preserve in the best of condition.

Other needed improvements in the Preserve were discussed and when the state officials visit here it will be for the purpose of determining the scope of improvements to be made. Director Truax and an assistant, will be here probably next week, while Director Boulay is expected a week or two later. Governor Donahay is expected next month.

Fire Sweeps Through The C. C. Bode Warehouse; Christmas Goods Destroyed

After investigating all phases of the fire, which swept through the warehouse of C. C. Bode and company, Gallia street quenchware firm, A. J. Bode, head of the company, says he is convinced that boys playing with matches caused the fire. It was discovered at 4:35 Tuesday afternoon and Mr. Bode places his loss at $3,500 with only $2,500 insurance.

Christmas goods, which had just arrived and were not insured, were wiped out by the flames. The fire, in the heart of the downtown business district, created considerable anxiety for a while as great clouds of smoke poured out of the building and it looked as though adjoining property would be menaced but the firemen confined the flames to the building in which they had their origin.

Firemen from the Seventh and Gallia Street Companies responded to an alarm and for a short time fought a stubborn blaze as the flames had gained such headway before being discovered by Jack Schramm of the Monrad Engineering Company, whose place of business is in the rear of the Bode warehouse. Mr. Schramm turned in the alarm and assisted in getting Mr. Bode's Buick touring car out of the warehouse before the flames reached it.

Chief Leedom and his assistants were soon on the scene and two lines of water played on the flames, one from the front and one from the rear. The smoke was so dense for awhile that it hampered the firemen and it looked like the building was doomed, but they confined the flames to the northwest portion of the building. The flames spread so rapidly that only two or three boxes of goods could be carried from the structure. Several times when it looked like the flames were under control, they would break out in another section of the building and it was not until 4:50 that the fire was finally subdued. Fire Chief Leedom and Fireman Mathews and Artist suffered from the dense smoke but later on revived. Mathews also suffered a cut on his right hand when one of the windows in the building was shattered and a piece of glass struck him.

We have been in business 34 years and this is the first fire we have ever had and I hope it is the last," Mr. Bode said after the fire. "We have been so busy that I have neglected to insure our new Christmas goods and intended doing that today, but of course, it is too late now. There was no fire of any kind in the building and I am satisfied that boys, playing the big pile of straw in one corner of the building, could not resist the temptation to apply a match to it. When the fire was discovered this end of the building was a mass of flames."

Fall Style Week Opens

Turning leaves of autumn herald the new Fall season. And the new season means another Style Exposition, staged by the merchants of Portsmouth. Today marked the opening of this Fall Style Week and for the remainder of the week merchants will have special displays of the new modes and models as envisioned by Paris and New York. The women of Portsmouth and vicinity are invited to this event which is interesting and instructing in that all the leading styles of the day are shown. Each garment shown is a creation personally selected by buyers who visited the style centers to get the latest for Style Week exhibits. To see these exhibits will be a liberal education in the correct styles for fall and winter. Modish suits are lavishly fur trimmed or elaborately embroidered in entirely new types. Frocks are new and bewitching and in such a multitudinous collection that one is sure to find the frock of their choice. There is a lure of charm and richness and elegance in the new styles with enveloping folds of warm plaids to charm the eye and suggest delightful comfort. Hat modes are lovely and chic. There are so many shapes and materials and such a variety of colors and attractive combinations one hesitates to attempt to describe them. Exclamations of pleasure are certain to greet this exhibit of new millinery.

New York Governor Behind Attack On 18th Amendment

NEW YORK, Sept. 26—Emile Hare Miller, a lawyer of this city, announced today he had filed a petition with State Attorney General Sherman alleging that New York State's ratification of the eighteenth amendment was in violation of the state constitution and asking for a public hearing of his charge with a view to a test of the validity of the Legislature's action. The application was made, he said, at the suggestion of Governor Smith with whom he has been in correspondence in the matter.

Mr. Miller said he had called the Governor's attention to the fact that a number of years prior to the ratification of the eighteenth amendment by the Legislature, the state court of appeals decided, in the celebrated opinion in the case of Wynehamer vs. People that the Legislature was forbidden by the state constitution from passing any act which confiscated property in alcoholic liquors owned by citizens of the state and legally acquired. This decision, standing unmodified, amounted to a prohibition of the action taken by the Legislature upon the eighteenth amendment, according to Mr. Miller.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26—District Attorney Stanton late today issued a subpoena to bring Seymour L. Cromwell, President of the New York Stock Exchange to his office tomorrow morning when Mr. Cromwell will be asked to name the public officials he accused yesterday of threatening adverse legislation against the exchange unless their demands were met.

I want to know who these men are," Mr. Stanton said. Earlier in the day Mr. Cromwell had issued a statement declining to make public the names of officials.

Novel Case Raised
HAMILTON, Sept. 26—A case said to be without a precedent in Ohio is to be decided by Judge Clarence Murphy of the Common Pleas Court. Three years ago Middletown raised a civic fund of $1,000,000 with which to build a Y. M. C. A. building and make a number of improvements in a so-called civic center. The Miami Cycle and Manufacturing Company subscribed $12,000. Before payment was made the company passed into the hands of A. H. Walburg as receiver. In settling affairs of the company Mr. Walburg was unable to determine whether or not this subscription was subject to payment the same as other creditors and so submitted the question to the court. Supporters of the civic fund claim that inasmuch as the subscription was made when the company was solvent, payment in full is due.

Supreme Court Hears Argument On The Taft Taxation Law

COLUMBUS, OHIO, Sept. 26—The status of the Taft taxation law with respect to its alleged immunity from referendum and the constitutional authority of the Secretary of State insofar as scrutiny of referendum petitions in determining their validity and sufficiency is concerned, were argued before the Supreme Court today.
Upon the decisions to be handed down by the court in two suits, wherein these questions are raised, depends the prerogative of the voters to pass upon the Taft Act at the November election. They also will determine and interpret the constitutional provision providing for exclusion of "laws providing for levying of taxes" from referendum attacks. Finally, they will settle the controversy raised by the Ohio Association of Real Estate Boards with respect to the powers and prerogatives of the Secretary of State in connection with referendum petitions.

The suits are those brought by John H. McCreehan, president of the State Association of Real Estate Boards, against Secretary of State Taft H. Brown, to prevent him from determining the sufficiency of the petitions filed against the Taft law and by D. C. Keller, president of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce against the Ohio Tax Commission in order to require it to proceed with preparations for levying taxes in 1924 under the code established by the Taft law.

An imposing array of counsel appeared to contest the suits today. Former Attorney General Timothy S. Hogan and Bert B. Buckley, former assistant attorney general under John C. Felton, represented Mr. McCreehan, while Assistant Attorney General H. H. Griswold, former speaker of the House of Representatives represented the Secretary of State.

Representative Robert A. Taft, author of the law, represented himself and Law Director Frank Dotsenko of Toledo, made parties to the suit at their own request. Representative

Backfield Shows Improvement

The Ironclad says: The hopes of Coach Davies and the many followers of the Tiger football squad were boosted after last evening by the much improved show-up of the backfield. In preparation for their game with the Catlettsburg Wildcats, the Tigers went through a very grueling practice. The backfield showed very good form, while the line did not exactly please the Athletic mentor of Ironclad High School. The first defense of the Tigers seemed slow and languid. The usual pep and aggressiveness of Ward, Sanders, Clarke, Nazor and Davis was lacking. Under the slashing attack directed against them by the backfield, they wilted and gave ground. However the big line men of the Tigers will improve before the game Saturday.

Society

Miss Harriet Scarff opened her lovely new home on Sunrise avenue to the members of the Young People's Missionary Society of Bigelow church for their first fall meeting on Monday evening. The speakers' rooms where the guests assembled were decorated with a beautiful arrangement of many colored dahlias and other fall flowers.

The meeting opened with devotional exercises by Miss Sadie Maule, who also offered the prayer. The president of the society then delivered her message, urging all Groups to thoroughly organize for their fall and winter's work. A motion was then carried to admit the men as associate members of the society. It was also decided to hold a rummage sale within the next few weeks, and all members are urged to get their donations ready for this sale.

Miss Emma Johnston was named to take subscriptions for McCall's Magazine, and Miss Anna Adams and Miss Lucy Daulton were appointed a committee to gather up old papers and magazines for sale. Mrs. Ralph Delemater, Mrs. Lloyd Henderson and Miss Caroline Mackoy were appointed a committee to buy a school outfit for Miss Carrie Mae Blanks, who is now living at the McCarthy Settlement Home at Cedar Town, Georgia. Following an appeal read by Miss Emma Johnston from the Olive Hill School, asking the society to support another girl at the home, it was decided to look after Miss Blanks.

Mrs. Virlan Taylor read a paper, "A Light in a Dark Place," which was very appropriate and interesting. Another entertaining feature of the meeting was the response by each member to questions previously given them, the answers being given when the numbers were called. Mrs. Penni E. Selby also gave a very instructive talk on her trip through the West during the past summer. Mrs. Selby and party descended the Grand Canyon, a distance of 2,000 feet, on "mule back." Her description of the beauties of the West were very entertaining.

Miss Lena Daulton was welcomed as a new member and before adjournment Miss Scarff and the following members of Group One served a delectable refreshment course: Miss Sadie Maule, Mrs. H. M. Baker, Mrs. Viola Shump, Mrs. Frank Dever, Mrs. W. T. Gray and Mrs. W. K. Wells.

During last night's meeting the various Groups were reorganized with the following members in each Group:

Miss Dolly Wise

She's here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—About two weeks ago a friend of mine got into a dispute about when the Chillicothe pike became a free road and the old toll gates were abandoned. My friend says it was in 1874, but I know it was later for the toll gate at the two mile hill was in existence as late as 1882, if I remember right. Will you or some reader of the Times settle this dispute for me?

The toll gates passed out of existence in 1880. Mr. Henry Potter was the toll-gate keeper, and he moved to Portsmouth in the spring of 1880.

Miss Dolly Wise—I noticed in your column a few days ago some one wanted to know if you thought the ex-service men were getting a fair deal. I for one do not think so. Ask any of them what they think of it, because they talk of what they think is right that is to say, they are getting. They deserve more than they are getting. Let me tell you a few facts. The truth is always what hurts, that's why so many people will not own up to it. When war was declared nothing was too good for us. They were all ready to slay us on the back till we had fine fellows we were wanted us to win; we were promised our old jobs, a bonus and everything upon return. After going through "over there" to win most of them broken in health, body or mind, came back to this country to be turned out on two months' pay which would hardly more than buy a suit of clothes, had to take any kind of an old job to live. The ones we left some one else had and made enough while we were making a dollar a day to be independent. Some had to go without jobs in the land they fought to make safe. They were forgotten, neglected, helpless, where a few months before this country was depending upon them. Do you think there is enough money to pay them for what they had to suffer? These men that made the big money during the war, some were thinking they were of loved ones lost. Others of what we are going to cost. That's the ones that were so willing to shout when we were going, then turn us out in the world when we got back with a little $80 bonus. Where one is receiving vocational training, there are five that aren't, and need it just as bad. America is a good-hearted country, always willing to help you think she should help those at home who need it first? The Bureau of War Risk Insurance can well afford what they pay to some of the wounded during the war. We were almost compelled to make out of $10,000 policy which cost $650 out of our monthly pay. Think of the thousands that took a policy. Some of the men broken in health, not able to work received a pension for the first 6 or 8 months, then it stopped. Some sent in applications to go for treatment and received the reply there was not room for them. They had money, they could go to a hospital.

AN EX-SERVICE MAN.

Because ex-service men did not get their jobs back it is not the fault of the government, but rather lack of appreciation on the part of the firms who employed them. If you or any of your friends are not getting what is coming to you, in the way of medical attention or hospital treatment, it must be because you did not apply to the proper authorities. There are quite a few government hospitals in this country, and if there is no room in one, surely there is in another. As for a bonus, that is still under advisement and may be taken up again this year. Personally, I don't think every ex-service man should be paid a bonus. But I do think those who need one or deserve one, should get it, and I think they will get one sooner or later. Your letter was so long that I had to blue pencil it but I think people will understand what you mean.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print a way to make chow-chow.

COUNTRY READER

Chow-Chow—One gallon of green tomatoes, one gallon of chopped cabbage, one gallon of cucumbers, two bunches of celery, all chopped. Salt to taste and cabbage separately and let stand a few hours, then put to drain over night; in the morning stir all together and heat in weak vinegar, drain again and put in two quarts of vinegar, one pound of sugar, celery seed, cinnamon, cloves and turmeric.

E. E. Jackson, Ohio—I think you should straighten things out right away. It is a terrible thing to accuse an innocent person of committing a wrong. If you don't want any further trouble or publicity you might go to the powers that be and have the matter dismissed, like that. Now, Dolly, what would you do about it? Some one reported her to the police but it wasn't me, although I got the blame for it. B. B.

Blue Eyes—It is too early to start having Halloween parties now. I will print hints and suggestions in time for you to have a party, but there is no use starting now, and print them every other day for a month.

Mrs. T. B.—You are all wrong. The woman they were writing about did not have a husband, so that lets you out even if you do live in a "busy-body" neighborhood.

CRAZY CALF RUNS OFF

Crazy Cal was so amazed he meekly let them ride him home to the pasture.

WED better be going to work," said Mister Dodger, the fairy-man, stuffing his corn-cob pipe with dried corn-silk and putting on his corncob hat. "Are you Twins ready?"

"Yes, indeed," said Nick, stamping around to make sure that his magic green shoes were on tight, while Nancy ran to open the door. "What shall we do first?"

"Count noses!" nodded Mister Dodger, looking up and down the cornfield to make sure that no one was coming. "I'll have to go over the farm and count all the chickens and pigs and turkeys and everything to make sure that none of them are missing. Come on!" he motioned. "It's safe as a bank. I'll go to the pasture field first, for I've had my eye on Crazy Cal for a week. He's silly as a goose, and now that he is old enough to be away from his mother, she doesn't pay a bit of attention to him."

"But the field has a fence around it, hasn't it?" asked Nick.

Fence, humph! As though that made any difference to a frisky young calf," scoffed Mister Dodger. "One, two, three, four—yes, sir! What did I tell you?" he cried. "Crazy Cal is gone."

Nick and Nancy looked toward the place where a lot of cows were lying under the shade of a tree, chewing and chewing at nothing at all. Crazy Cal was indeed missing.

"There's no time to lose!" cried Mister Dodger. "Nick, you go this way, Nancy you go that, and I'll go the other way. Here's a whistle for each of you. If you find him blow as hard as you can."

So away they all went in different directions.

It was Nick's whistle that blew first and Mister Dodger came like a flash—followed by Nancy, who lost no time, you may be sure.

"He's gone into that patch of blue flowers," the whispered Nick, pointing. Everybody looked just in time to see Crazy Cal putting down his nose to eat.

"Stop! Stop!" screamed Mister Dodger so loudly that Crazy Cal jumped as though a bullet had hit him. "What's all the fuss about?" he asked crossly. "I've had my eye on this patch of blue flowers for weeks, and just when I go to take my first bite, you have to come along and spoil it all!"

"Thank goodness, it isn't too late!" declared Mister Dodger, mopping his face. "Don't you know that stuff is jarpur and a little of it would kill you? You'd better stay at home where you belong, young fellow! Jump on, Twins!"

Crazy Cal was so amazed he meekly let the three of them ride him home to the pasture.

"We've just saved your son's life," said Mister Dodger sternly to "Sissee Cow." "You'd better keep him at home after this."

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — UNDER THE GROUND

BY ELTON

"But I don't see any gold or silver or jewels here," replied Jack. "Of course, you don't," smiled Mother Earth. "You have to dig for them. Like everything else, in order to get anything, you have to work for it. And in this clay and dirt is where my workers work."

Jack looked at the great dark walls of the dirt and clay passage. Mr. he thought, what a terrible place to live in. And, as if she had heard him, think, Mother Earth asked Jack if he would like to return to earth again. "I should say I would," he replied. (Continued.)

AUTUMN OPENING

THE AUTUMN EXPOSITION! There's something to conjure with at this time of the year, for perhaps at no other season is a woman's style interest more keenly aroused—in the new colors, the new fabrics, the new silhouettes.

And early in the season we have been fortunate enough to gather here for an authentic exposition, interpretations that tell the trend of a new mode in alluring details of godets, tiers, plaids and shiny fabrics. Frocks, Coats, Wraps and Gowns are assembled for your inspection. We invite you to see them.

DRESS COATS

Interpret A Host Of New Style Ideas

The Dress Coat with flare contour or that coat favorite, the one of tube silhouette—these two ultra smart Coats of the new Fall are to be seen here in smartest interpretations.

You'll see them developed in new and exquisitely supple pile fabrics, in Jacquard weaves—in bottle green, in kit-fox grey—in black or tobacco brown.

The new smart embroidery—Viarka fur trimmings—the double collar—these and other style details make these Coats indubitably smart. Indeed, we feel that never before have we had an equally clever display.

The New Fall Topcoats

Just now, your thoughts turn to Topcoats. You know how comfortable and smart one would be to slip on these cool evenings. Here is a Topcoat event of splendid value to you.

Coats have the new plaids—the new lines. Here are those smart mustard yellows, beige and green shades fashion sponsors. The prices are noteworthy low. An event possible now, only because we believe in speedy turnover of merchandise while it is at its newest and freshest. Suppose you view them tomorrow!

Fall Frocks For The Junior Miss

Here are all those practical, yet smart School Frocks that are the first items, more than likely on a mother's list, now. It won't be necessary to coax the Junior Miss into one of these Frocks, for they are so pretty!

Twill, Jersey and wool crepes make these smart models. Some new two-piece ones of Jersey have contrast color bindings. Smart touches of embroidery or braid are not the least of the attractions of the Twill Frocks. In short, it is a group that stands out because it is packed with desirability.

Style, Quality and Price Are Allied In Fall Footwear

Individuality and a gratifying style ensemble are present in these beautiful footwear modes for Fall. Close personal touch with the style sources, assures your finding the very model best fitting your foot and blending with costume.

Leathers, Lasts, Colors, Goringes, Straps, Sandals and Anklets are among the style notes now so popular. Moderately Low Prices are effective at once and makes your shopping now a pleasure.

"You must not; it is wrong," said the father to the daughter, and of course she did—the father knew she would. And raving designated a special brand of Turkish tobacco, the next thing was to select a dress as near the color of her favorite blend as she could, and she chose "Cigarette." It's a lovely new shade of brown, and looks good enough to eat. A new Fall color—don't forget that.

If You've Never Shopped In Paris

—you have been saved a large bunch of annoyance. If you have, and expect to shop again, you'll be pleased to hear that the leading stores there are at last adopting American methods to speed up the service.

The old confusion and interminable waits to pay the cashier for your purchases are to be eliminated.

We can learn a lot from Paris—but not so much as Paris can learn from us. American stores service, accepted as a matter of course, is really a marvel of convenience and efficiency—the natural answer to the American demand for time-saving and money-saving.

When You Don Your New Wool Frock This Season

It's almost certain to be plaited, tiered or godeted. It makes no difference which, just so long as there is a note of abruptness to relieve the straightline silhouette. The tiers may stop sharply at the side, the plaits may take the form of panels, flounces or inserts, the godets must be on one side only.

Whatever the vagary of skirt, blouses are very plain, if not embroidered or beaded, and sleeves are long and in most instances tight. A number of very good looking models are on display now—they're in a number of becoming Autumn shadings—and are nominally priced.

Silk Frocks In Which To Tea On Autumn Afternoons

And being appropriate for teeing, means smart for the matinee, the Bridge Club and the various other occasions which appear on Milady's social calendar, now that vacation days are over.

And if the frock be of satin crepe, of brocade, or fabrics much beaded and embroidered, you're sure of that satisfaction which comes from being correctly apparelled.

There are a number of lovely shadings to choose from, notably black, greens and many new tones of brown; and the stylings are unusually becoming.

Evening Gowns All A-Glitter For Autumn Evenings

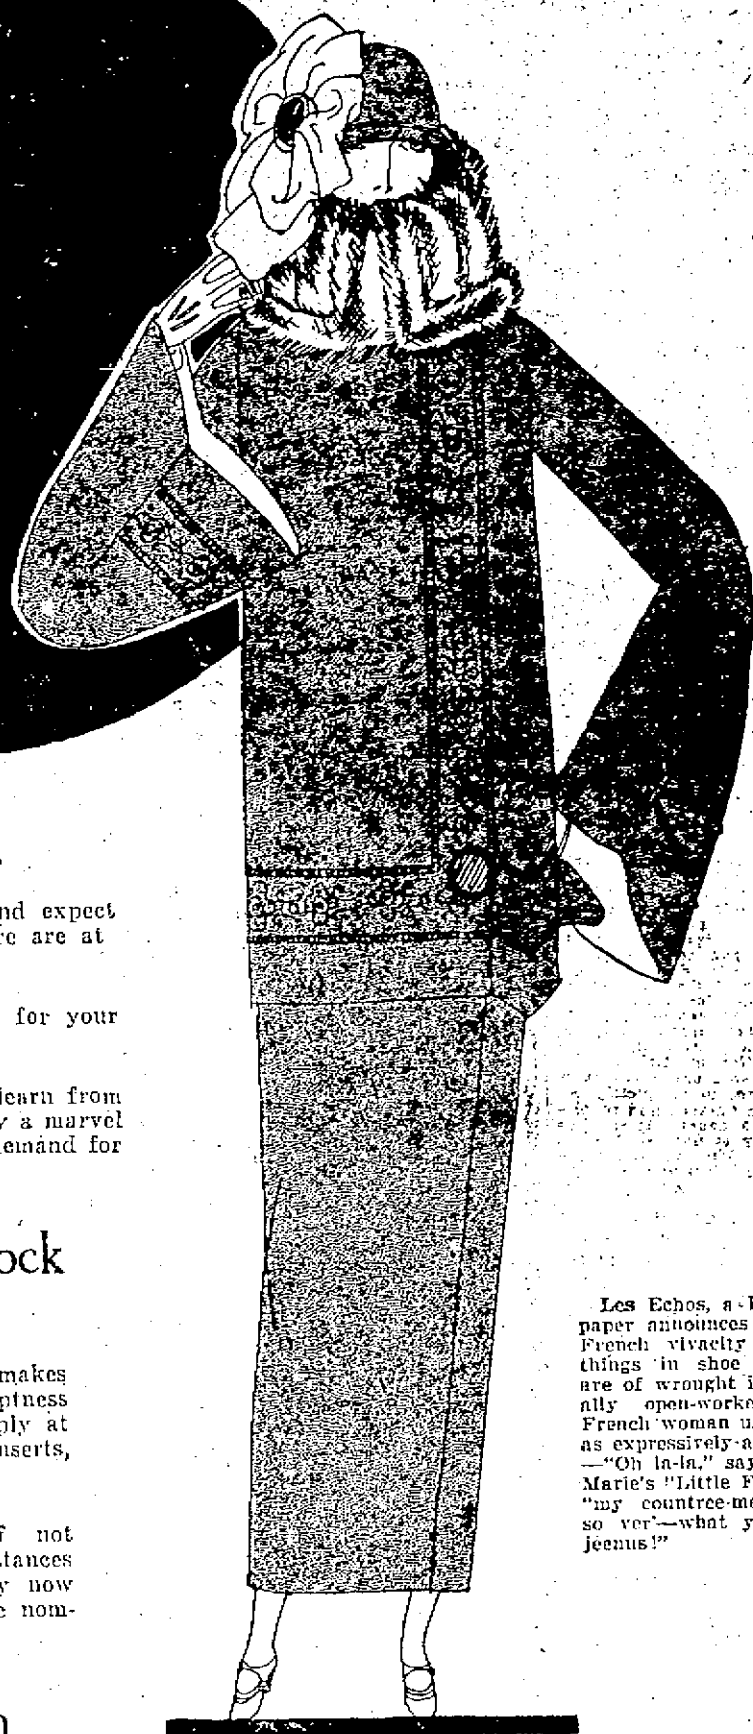

Almost outdoing the starry brightness of an Autumn night. Gowns whose spangly treatments, whose shiny satins and whose metallic fabrics fairly entrance you by their loveliness.

There are so many really charming stylings, fashioned of fabrics gorgeous in themselves that satisfactory selection is assured. There are lovely colorings to choose from, too, which will be at their best during evening hours.

Gloves For New Autumn Costumes

You may be sure your gloves are striking the right fashion notes if they are selected here. For smart new sueded fabric, French kid and other fine leather gloves, flaunting new gauntlet and wristlet treatments, are here in a wide assortment of shades, notably wool tones, greens and browns.

You may be smartly gloved for evening, too, if selection is made here.

Les Echos, a French trade paper announces with proper French vivacity the newest things in shoe heels. They are of wrought iron, artistically open-worked. If the French woman uses her heels as expressively as her hands! —"Oh la-la," says Celeste, of Marie's "Little French Shop," "my countess-men, say aie so ver"—what you say?—in-jenius!"

MILLINERY

The new Dress Hats for Fall are arriving daily in large shipments. In with the vogue for Frocks that borrow 1880 quaintness and blend with it a 1923 sophistication, come these Dress Hats of velvet in black, brown and gay colors.

Many very charming ones use feathers in naive colorings. Others depend on a huge galla lily, black as night or of scintillant yellow velvet, poised on the brim somewhere.

These are only a few attractive ideas in new Fall Dress Modes here. Others express equally clever new whims. For instance those New High Crowned Hats, a crown that is put together in melon-like sections.

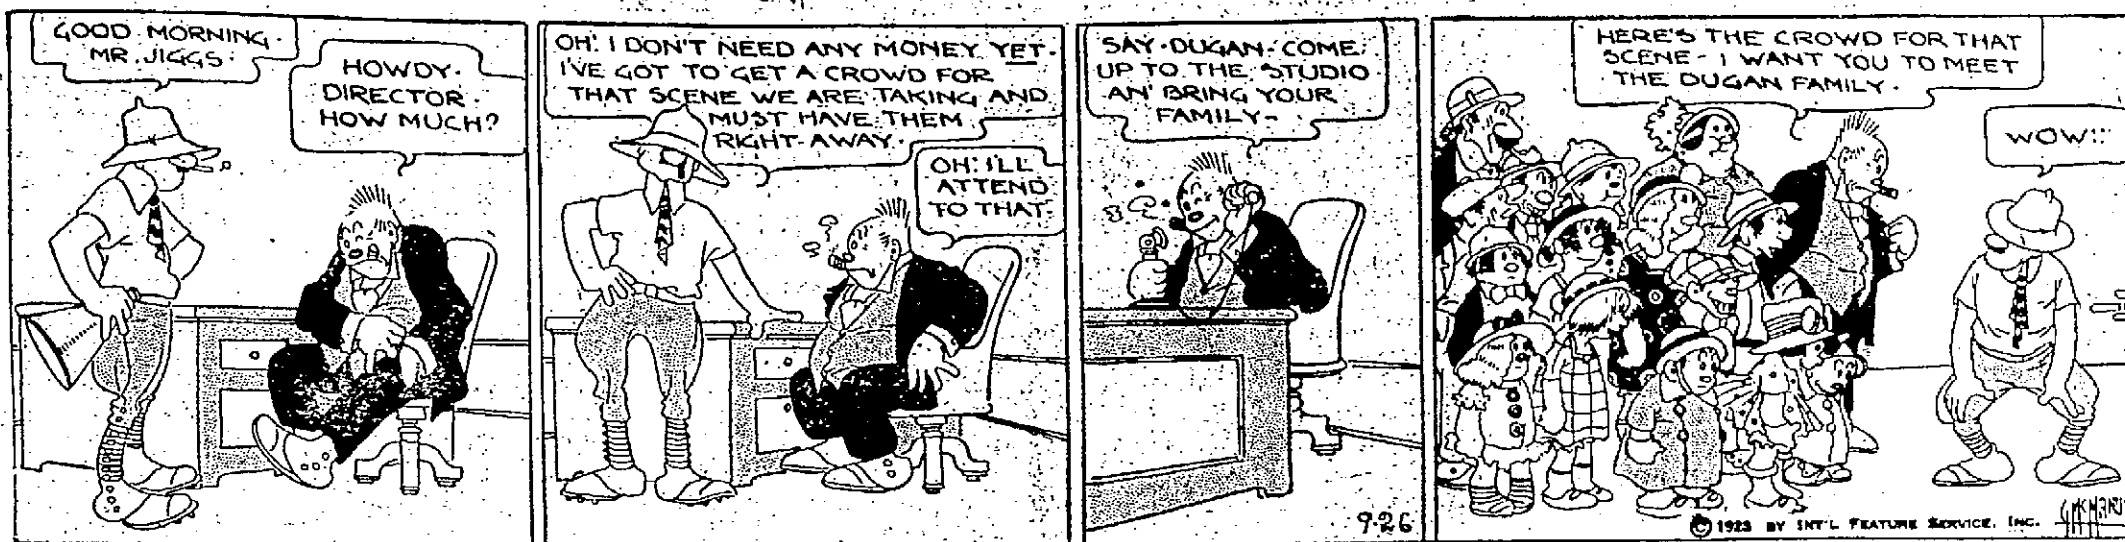

The Hat may be of any one of the new fabrics and combinations of them. They lend themselves very cleverly to cascades of ribbon or handwork. It is a mode expressed very completely in Hats here. Come in and let us show you these intriguing Chapeaux. You'll also admire the unusually Low Pricings.

Local Building Activities Reviewed By Mr. Frick; Emphasizes House Shortage

Of general interest is a report of building activities and needs in Portsmouth, compiled by Manager Adam Frick of the Chamber of Commerce for a building trade journal. A copy of this report reads:

"There is a distinct shortage of houses in the city that can be occupied by wage earners drawing from $100 to $150 per month. In this division there is need for 100 such homes and perhaps as many as 25 in process of erection. Many more are needed. In the class of homes necessary to the unskilled person in excess of the first named there should be at least 40 more under construction whereas there are but 10. There is need for 25 two family houses that can be built at approximately $10,000 and rent at $50 per side. There is but one under construction. Two large apartment houses can be filled with a high class tenant at a rental of $50 to $60 per month. One of such has recently been designed and excavation started, this apartment will house 21 families and is near the business section of the city. We were conservative in stating that two such can be used. There should be that number under construction at this time and two in contemplation each year for the next decade. One new hospital, 150 beds, one being altered. The city has need for two additional schools, none are under construction because of the erection cost being beyond the price thought to be reasonable. Temporary quarters are being provided. There are two garages in process of construction and one very handsome and pretentious one just completed, so this field may be said to be well supplied. There is need for two modern hotels of from 150 to 200 rooms with bath. One is now in process of contracting the structure, the grounds have been acquired. Another having been canceled out during the season due to the bids being in excess of the estimate. There are no need of additional bank buildings in the city; however, one is in contemplation at Lucasville, in this county and state. There can be several modern store buildings placed in use in locations adjacent to main thoroughfares where the rent can be just a bit less and business carried on at lower overhead.

"This need is apparent in this city enabling business to move out in a larger circle rather than continue the straight line movement."

"There is no need of additional picture houses. There is, however, much thought that a real theater is necessary and we would hazard the expression that there should be such an accommodation of our theater-going people; that not only are required to leave the city to find such amusement necessary to any important community."

"The city could use an additional office building and we are of the opinion that one such will be built within the next year or two. Ten thousand feet of office space at a cost of 50 cents per foot could be utilized."

"The county has long since deemed it necessary to erect a new court house and jail. The former is being designed and will be under construction during 1924. The jail, it is hoped, will be built at the same time. Jails we thought could be dispensed with more generally following the adoption of the eighteenth amendment, but for a time at least there is an urgent need for many more and greater cell capacity. We are not advertising that feature, merely admitting what seems to be the situation and hoping the additional space now necessary may be devoted to other purposes real soon."

"The Daily Times and Sun, morning and evening papers, are adding a splendid addition to their plant and are marching right along with the expansion of the city."

"The increase in population makes necessary the structures to which reference is made and as we have a very active realtors' board we are looking to them for the immediate future need in home and other buildings."

Asthma Doomed By Ohio Doctor's New Treatment

Specialist's Prescription, Guaranteed, To Bring Complete Relief—Or No Cost.

At last Asthma, too, has yielded to modern medical science. A new, wonderful new treatment—perfected by Dr. G. Platt, of the Clinical Laboratory, Cleveland, Ohio—relieves violent spasms usually in 30 minutes or less, and fully relieves the chronic suffering of every form of Asthma within 24 hours.

No longer need you wheeze and gasp and fight for breath. No longer need you face those terrible nights of struggling horror. For this remarkable new prescription is positively guaranteed to banish every Asthma symptom—or it costs you nothing.

The new treatment is known as Dr. Platt's Rinox Prescription, and is entirely different from any other. The latest medical discoveries prove that all the different forms of ASTHMA—whether renal, cardiac, simple bronchial, or otherwise—are due to one fundamental internal condition—an overloading and poisoning of the entire system through toxins derived from any one of several sources.

No previous treatment has attempted to get at this internal condition. But this new Rinox treatment, taken in simple capsule form and absorbed into the blood stream through the digestive tract, immediately neutralizes this infection, thus it brings instant and complete relief from every form of Asthma—without any habit-forming narcotics or toxic drugs, and without any bad after-effects.

Rinox is the only Asthma treatment on the market originated and developed entirely by physicians under scientific clinical conditions, manufactured by reliable, ethical manufacturing pharmacists, and approved and prescribed by physicians.

No matter what form of Asthma you have, or how long you have suffered with it, Rinox is guaranteed to bring you complete relief—or it costs you nothing. The regular size package sells for only $1—to be returned in full if it does not do the work. Be sure to get the genuine Dr. Platt's Rinox Prescription in the air-tight glass flask. But, just now, through a special introduction, you can obtain a trial treatment entirely FREE.

Simply go to any of the drug stores named below and ask for a trial package of Rinox. No obligation at all on your part. But be sure to ask for your free treatment within the next three days—this offer is limited. Inidentally, Rinox is sold under the same money-back guarantee to completely relieve Hay Fever and Catarrh and to dispel Head Colds in 2 hours. It may be obtained in this city at Geo. W. Friend, The Fisher and Strick Pharmacy, East End Pharmacy, Wurster, Brock.

Twenty-four Years Ago

Local friends regretted to hear of the serious illness of David C. Little, former superintendent of the old Johnson Hub and Spoke factory, at his home in Seymour, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. George Billian, newlyweds, were the "victims" of an old-fashioned belling.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hammond were agreeably surprised, when about thirty of their friends and neighbors came to assist them in celebrating the thirty-fourth anniversary of their wedding.

There was no ball game on the Scioto bottoms on Sunday afternoon because the Navies went to Cincinnati to witness a double-header between the Reds and Chicago.

Adolph Glockner and Lou Hurth were the proudest duck hunters in Portsmouth because their large, galvanized steel boat arrived.

Rev. Joseph Clark, of Columbus, general secretary of the State Sunday School Association, was the principal speaker at a meeting of Sunday school workers in this city.

Summer Bros. exhibited a monster squash which was given them by a patron. The squash was three feet long, weighed five and one-half pounds and was raised by Peter Jeanguenat, of Pond Creek.

Ohio Pythians Hold Big Parade; 2,000 in Line

TOLEDO, Sept. 26—Delegates to the state convention of the Knights of Pythians paraded tonight. The 2,000 marchers were led by Grand Marshal L. E. Sanzenbacher and Assistant Marshals Horace Nelson and George Hoehler.

Officers of the grand lodge rode in automobiles and were followed by the "ramadan patrol," a crack drill organization, and delegates from surrounding lodges.

The rank of page was conferred on a large class of Steadman Lodge, Toledo. Following the ritual work a stag entertainment was provided for delegates.

The Pythian Sisters took up their routine business in their meeting place at the Labor Temple.

Both conventions were adjourned this afternoon to permit attendance at special memorial services for William Beatty, which were held in Woodlawn cemetery.

Members of Scioto Lodge No. 31, I. O. O. F. who were not fortunate in getting to attend the convention of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows in Cincinnati last week heard a report on the big meeting from Grand Lodge Representative Charles A. Tocher, who was present at the big meeting.

One candidate, Samuel Elwell, received the third degree Monday night. Announcement was also made that the degree team would go to McDermott tonight to confer work upon a class of several candidates.

Owner Lives Out Of City

SOUTHWEST CORNER OF BAIRD AVENUE AND KINNEY'S LANE

Modern seven room two story home, fine large lot. This lot alone is worth $3500.00 and to build the house would cost $6,000.00, making a total value of $9500.00. We recommend this property to be one of the best, if not the best, bargain we have ever had to offer. The price of this property is so low that we feel it would be to the interest of the purchaser not to publish the price, but will be glad to give price and details upon application.

Germany

President Ebert and Chancellor Stresemann announced in the formal proclamation today that the German government had been compelled through bitter necessity, to end the Ruhr strike. Adherence to passive resistance, said the document, would have brought on the economic collapse of Germany and consequently would have threatened the livelihood of the German people.

The government appeals to the nation to stand by the republic in the present hour "of severest soul-searching and material privation, as only thus can the nation's honor and life be conserved." The proclamation lays emphasis upon the statement that under no circumstances can a part of German territory be conceded to another power.

The nation is assured that the government will do anything possible to obtain restoration of "elementary human rights" for the German nationals evicted from the Ruhr and Rhineland.

The history of the passive resistance is reviewed by the document, which sets forth that 150,000 men, women and children have been driven from their homes and firesides, while many millions no longer have any conception of personal liberty.

"More than one hundred of our fellow citizens have been forced to lay down their lives; it counts 'white' hundreds are still languishing in prisons."

As to the expense of the support given to the passive resistance, the proclamation cites the fact that only last week the assistance given to the Ruhr amounted to 3,500,000,000 marks, and that this would have to be doubled the following week. The cost of this assistance had made the stabilization of currency impossible, it was pointed out.

"The entire nation now is able to give Germany peace," the document declares.

Klan To Be

party denounce not only Lynch law, but all forms of lawlessness and all operations of secret, outlandish organizations.

The Democratic party receives much of its support in the populous states of New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey where Catholic societies are well organized and can wield considerable political power. The party that denounces the K. K. K. will make a strong bid for the Irish Catholic vote, which was strong enough in 1920 to swing several states on the league of nations issue, for instance, which so many of the Irish-Americans violently opposed. The fact that the Irish Catholic vote will leave the Democratic party if the issue is serious enough, has been demonstrated with sufficient proof to make the Democratic leaders wary about ignoring that element in the party.

The K. K. K. issue is so much of a factor abroad that it may even have an influence on the choice of candidates. There are rumors, for instance, that friends of Senator Oscar Underwood are urging him to take the leadership in opposing the K. K. K., contending that since he comes from the South his opposition will be even more weighty than might otherwise be the case.

The growth of the Ku Klux Klan in the three years since its 1920 convention has been so widespread that political leaders have a basis of comparison with other years. There are always movements in every country toward dangerous things, but the K. K. K. in 1920 was relatively a negligible factor in national politics. Should an effort be made in the platform committee of either party to squelch the question without any expression whatsoever, it seems certain that the issue will be raised from the floor. Reports are rampant that both political parties will be challenged to say something on the question which will in substance, seek to compel the K. K. K. to throw off its mask and conduct its campaigns in the open like other social, political or religious organizations.

Russian

Prisoners taken by the Bulgarian troops carry improved rifles of Russian design, while the tactics employed by the rebel officers strongly recall the methods used in the original Bolshevik revolution in Russia. Men armed only with clubs are placed in the van of well equipped troops, while the unarmed vanguards are scattered by the fusillade of the regular soldiers.

Sofia resembles a city occupied by an invading army, for soldiers wearing steel helmets and carrying fixed bayonets stand guard over all public buildings.

A constant order apparently has been restored in Northern Bulgaria, the defeated communists show great repugnance to the southern part of the country, and although scattered in the evening are able to march their forces over night and resume hostilities in the morning.

PARIS, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—Calm has been restored in the districts of Bulgaria, where the communists provoked trouble. Sofia, one center of ferment, the most important alone remains, namely the region of Ferdinandovo, but the government's operations for the suppression of the insurrection there are proceeding normally. The suicide of several of the rebel leaders is reported while others are said to have been massacred by their own followers. A large number of those in revolt have surrendered their arms many of which were of a Russian make.

SOFIA, Sept. 26.—(By the Associated Press.)—The communist government, through the commission of military control, created by the Bulgarian treaty, have authorized the military forces of the country to such strength as is deemed necessary to cope with the situation in the interior.

Troops

was being dispersed "as a legislature or as individuals."

Dispersed As Legislature

"You are being dispersed as a legislature," Colonel Kiehl replied. "The door of the house chamber never was opened and through the entire proceeding none save the military approached the chamber, the military guard stationed about twenty feet in front of the main entrance."

The house members left the capitol almost in a body for their headquarters at a down town hotel.

The scene that attended the dispersal was unprecedented. House members and newspaper men were grouped as closely as possible to the entrance of the chamber, when Brice, from the back of the crowd and across the open court there pierced the retinue, suddenly made an effort to call the session to order. There was a shuffle as members sought to gain places of vantage. The sharp command of the guard commander to "Stand where you are" arrested them. Women and girls who had fringed the crowd about the house entrance, were caught in the midst of the floor managers, faced about and stood silently while the order was read.

Then The Crowd Scattered

Then in groups of twos and threes, the crowd scattered. For a moment the situation took on a threatening aspect. There was determination written on the face of Colonel Kiehl as he issued his command to the legislators to disperse at once when he spoke in a harsh voice that left no doubt as to his determination to carry out the orders of his superiors.

A moment of suspense followed. The crowd seemed taken aback at the suddenness of the action and the change in demeanor of the armed guardsmen posted around the court.

There was however, no indication of resistance and within a few seconds the assembly broke up. About 200 persons witnessed the scene.

Several articles were reported as stolen, but a complete check will be necessary to determine just what has been taken.

OBITUARY

Samuel Gordley

Morning about 5 o'clock Wednesday morning died Samuel Gordley at his home, 1031 Gallia street, after a long illness of obstruction of the bowels. Mr. Gordley took to his bed Sunday evening. News of his death will come as a great shock to his wide circle of friends, many of whom did not know of his serious illness.

Samuel Gordley was born in Jackson County, Ky., August 9, 1871, where he lived until he came to Portsmouth 26 years ago. He took employment at the Selby shoe factory and worked there for 16 years. Later he obtained work in the Excelsior shoe plant and was in the employ of the Excelsior firm when employed by death.

Mr. Gordley was united in marriage June 9, 1909, to Mrs. Montavon. She died suddenly on Thanksgiving Day last year. Since coming to Portsmouth Mr. Gordley had won a legion of friends who honored and respected him.

Surviving are his mother, Mrs. L. Gordley, of Eighteenth street, two brothers, Elza Gordley, of McConnell avenue, and Charles Gordley, of Montana, and two sisters, Mrs. C. Courtney, of Columbus, and Mrs. Clarence Pyles, of Eighteenth st.

Funeral services will be held from the home of his brother, Elza Gordley, 1214 McConnell avenue, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with Rev. Gerald Culbertson, of First Christian Church, in charge. Burial will be in Greenlawn.

I. F. Boggs

I. F. Boggs, Lawrence County, Ky., farmer died last night at 11:30 o'clock at the home of his son, Crute Boggs, 820 Front street. Death was due to a lingering illness of Bright's disease, and followed a paralytic stroke about six months ago.

Mr. Boggs was brought here shortly after his son moved here, six weeks ago from their Kentucky home. During a long course of treatment at his home, Secordville, Ky., his condition remained unchanged, and as his condition showed no change for the worse, no medical advice had been called since he came to Portsmouth.

Last night he followed within a moment of the final attack, before a physician could be summoned.

He was 68 years of age, and is survived by two sons, Crute and Harry, both of 820 Front street; and by three daughters, Minnie, Secordville, Ky., Mrs. Bellie Evans, Serry, Ky., and Mrs. Bertha Sturgill, Turner, West Va.

Covered Powder was summoned immediately after the death, and gave the verdict of natural death due to Bright's disease.

The remains were taken to Secordville, Ky., Wednesday morning for burial.

Faces Charge Of Shooting With Intent To Kill

GREENUP, Ky., Sept. 25.—(Special to the Times).—Burus Adkins, 24, arrested by Seato Co. officers, was returned to this place by Chief Dist. Adkins was caught in a brickyard where he was employed. He is wanted on a charge of shooting with intent to kill Henry Lawson of the east end of this county. Lawson signed a warrant for the arrest of Adkins some time ago, but it was only a few days ago when officers learned where the man could be found.

According to Adkins, who officers say, admits he wounded Lawson with a shot gun on June 28 last on Muddy Creek, this county, it was a case of mistaken identity. Lawson was riding by Adkins in a machine when Adkins fired a shotgun at the car, some of the shots lodging in Lawson's shoulder.

Adkins claims, officers say, that he mistook Lawson for a justice of the peace and another man from Russell who had been searching automobiles for moonshine. The prisoner claims his car had been searched sometime before and that he held a grudge against the justice of the peace. When Lawson came by in his machine Adkins says he thought Lawson was the Squire and fired at him.

This is the third time Adkins has been in jail here. The first time for wife desertion and the second time was for having knowledge of a still. He is to have an examining trial Friday on the latest charge.

Adkins was arrested by officers in Sheriff Dunham's office, and was held in the local jail under a failure to provide charge. Sheriff Dunham also held the warrant from Greenup and turned Adkins over to Chief Dist. to take him to Greenup.

Frovine Seeks Damage
Harold St. Clair, who is held at the county jail in connection with alleged holdups near Wheelersburg, was made defendant in an action instituted in Common Pleas court today by Ralph Frovine, who is demanding $550 for damages he sustained to his automobile by the discharge of a shot gun fired by the defendant on the night of Sept. 25 last.

Through Attorney J. T. Mickelthwait, the plaintiff says that on the night mentioned he was driving his Hudson Speedster along what is commonly known as the Atlantic and Pacific highway from Ironton to Portsmouth, and that while he was at a point between Haverhill and Wheelersburg the defendant was standing in the middle of the road with a shot gun in his hands signaling and indicating for the plaintiff to stop. Frovine recites that he refused to stop and declares that as soon as he had passed, the defendant discharged the shot gun so that the contents of the gun struck, penetrated and injured the rear part of the body of his automobile for which he seeks damages in the amount claimed.

Lockjaw Proves Fatal To C. & O. Rotroff; Passes Away After 24 Hours Illness

After being ill with lockjaw only a few days, it developed after he had 24 hours, C. O. Rotroff, a well known citizen, passed away at 6 o'clock Tuesday night in Mercy Hospital after a week ago, while at work as a clock Tuesday night in Mercy Hospital for J. F. Warner, a well known contracting carpenter.

The wound apparently had healed as it was trivial in nature, the nail having penetrated the palm very slightly. Monday night Mr. Rotroff complained of severe pains in his left hand. He was moved to Mercy Hospital and 24 hours later he was a corpse. He was at his post last week and apparently was in the best of health and did not utter a single complaint about the injury to his hand, which ultimately resulted in his sudden death.

Carey Rotroff, aged 41, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Porter Rotroff, well known citizens of Winchester, Adams county. In addition to his parents he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Freda Howland Rotroff, one son, Virgil, aged 12, two brothers, I. C. Rotroff of Winchester and I. V. Rotroff of Fourth street and two sisters, Mrs. Robert Swearingen of Winchester and Mrs. Laura Black of Dayton. Mr. and Mrs. Rotroff moved to Portsmouth six years ago from Winchester.

Mr. Rotroff was a highly respected citizen and the news of his sudden death will come as a shock to his wide circle of friends many of whom were not aware that he had been ill as up to Monday evening he was around as usual and the injury, which eventually ended in his death, seemed a thing of the past.

Mr. Rotroff was a dutiful husband and loving father and will be missed. Since coming to Portsmouth he had joined the Franklin Avenue M. E. church and was a faithful attendant.

The body will be taken to the home of his parents at Winchester for burial.

Petitions Of Three School Board Members

The failure of three candidates for city school board, Dr. E. C. Jackson, Conrad Roth and Dr. Gilbert B. Micklethwait, and two candidates for county school board to insert in their nomination petitions the names and addresses of five persons, as a committee to fill a vacancy caused by death or withdrawal, and which formed the basis of protests filed with the Board of Elections resulted in the petitions being knocked out last night when the election board at the conclusion of a special hearing sustained the protests and rejected as invalid all the petitions to which objection had been made.

The board also announced a finding that all petitions not protested, but which on their face appeared irregular, were held to be valid and will be placed on the ballot.

The five candidates may not be eliminated from the race through the throwing out of their petitions, as shortly after the adverse decision of the board was announced, counsel on legal advice, a right to file new petitions, and immediately got busy obtaining signatures. The new petitions will probably be filed in time for the Election Board to pass on their legality at its meeting Saturday afternoon.

The entire membership of the board, was present at the meeting last night, Chief Deputy John Edgemoor presiding and the hearing lasted less than an hour. Many persons interested in the proceedings crowded into the election quarters in the Krieger building and remained throughout the separate hearings on each protest.

Miss Elizabeth Dice was the objector to the three city candidates, and charged through Judge A. Z. Blair, who appeared representing her, that the petitions were illegal as to form. It was especially brought out that Dr. Jackson's petition contained names of six persons as a committee to appoint a successor in event of death or disability, whereas the state law required names of only five persons as such a committee, in a special blank on the nominating petition.

In the spaces on the petitions of Dr. Micklethwait and Mr. Roth, provided for the naming of similar committees, Miss Dice charged that insufficient signatures had been obtained, pointing out that Dr. Micklethwait had failed to provide a committee, whereas Mr. Roth had only two of the required five names.

The three city candidates, depending on their decision to file new petitions in case originals were thrown out surprised Miss Dice, her counsel and bystanders, by offering no defense.

The board then took up the matter of objections filed against petitions of James Folsom and Smith Crull, candidates for places on the County Board of Education. It appeared that only two members of the required committee of five had been named on each petition. Alden W. Williams of Columbus, appeared on behalf of the objectors.

Nominating petitions of W. O.

Knight, candidate for the Board of Education of Bloom township, and B. C. Coleman, aspirant for a place on the Valley township board, were then taken up. It was claimed that Knight's petition lacked sufficient signatures, and that only two committee members of the required five had been named. A similar complaint was lodged against Coleman's petition.

The Board of Elections then went into executive session to consider the complaints, and after sifting the charges and consulting the legal requirements governing the filing of petitions, announced that the questioned petitions had been thrown out but that all petitions not questioned would be considered as eligible for entry on the ballots at the election.

The candidates whose petitions were thrown out, then made their announcement that new petitions would be filed, and it is expected that after they have been forced to file this extra trouble, their names will again be in the hands of the Election Board today, with petitions made out to overcome the defects alleged at last night's session.

Pennant Flapping In Face Of Giants; Reds Are Beaten

CINCINNATI, O., Sept. 26.—The champion New York Giants advanced within one game of their pennant goal by winning the last game of the western tour from Cincinnati Reds Tuesday, 8 to 2. Luque was hit hard in the early rounds, but with good control and excellent support, managed to keep the score close. The Giants scored in the second inning on Menzies' triple to the scoreboard and a single by Stengel. They bunched four singles for two earned runs and the game in the third, after which they could do little with the Cubans who struck out six men. Watson was very effective except in the first and last innings.

The Giants need only one more victory to clutch their third straight pennant flag. They left for the east last night and will close their season with four games with Brooklyn and one with Boston. If they win any one of these five games, the Reds' cannot overtake them, even by winning all four of their remaining contests, two of which are with St. Louis and two with Pittsburgh. Score: By play:

First Inning.—Luque received an ovation when he went to the hill and his first pitch was a strike. Bancroft, however, hit the next one to center, the ball bounded over Roush's head for a double. He went to third on Groh's fly to Burns. Frisch caught it, Burns advanced to second, Groh advanced to first. Watson struck out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Second Inning.—The Giants quickly tied it up in the second inning. Menzies opened this session with a triple to left center, and scored when Stengel batted a single to right. Kelly singled to center. A fast double play at this juncture averted further scoring. Gowdy hit to Pinelli, who tossed the ball to Kinnick, forcing Kelly and Kinnick's throw to Daubert beat Gowdy to first. Watson batted to Pinelli. One run, three hits, no errors.

Third Inning.—New York went into a two-run lead in this inning, by dint of hard, consecutive hitting. Bancroft opened the inning with a single to right, Groh followed with a single to right, Groh followed with a single to right, Groh followed with a single to right. Watson batted to Pinelli. One run, three hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning.—The Giants quickly tied it up in the second inning. Menzies opened this session with a triple to left center, and scored when Stengel batted a single to right. Kelly singled to center. A fast double play at this juncture averted further scoring. Gowdy hit to Pinelli, who tossed the ball to Kinnick, forcing Kelly and Kinnick's throw to Daubert beat Gowdy to first. Watson batted to Pinelli. One run, three hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning.—Gowdy doubled to left. On Watson's bunt Gowdy was nailed, Daubert to Pinelli. Bancroft popped to Roush. Groh fanned. No runs, one hit, no errors. Duncan singled over second, Frisch's wonderful stop being too late. Hargrave forced Duncan, Bancroft to Frisch. Pinelli popped to Frisch. Fowler flied to Meusel. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning.—Gowdy fanned. Watson fanned. Bancroft singled to center. Bancroft died. Hargrave to Fowler. No runs, one hit, no errors. Kinnick bounced to Groh. Roush flied to Young. Duncan bounced to Bancroft. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Seventh Inning.—Groh flied to Burns. Frisch flied to Roush. Young bounced to Kinnick. No runs, no hits, no errors. Hargrave bounced to Watson. Pinelli flied to Meusel. Fowler rolled to Kelly. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Eighth Inning.—Meusel bounced to Fowler. Stengel fanned. Kelly fanned. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Ninth Inning.—Beaton now pitching for Cincinnati. Gowdy popped to Kinnick. Fowler fumbled Watson's grounder. Bancroft flied to Burns. Groh bounced to Kinnick. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Tenth Inning.—Kinnick lined to Bancroft. Roush fanned. Duncan singled to center. Hargrave to right. Duncan taking third. Dick ran for Hargrave. Pinelli singled to center, scoring Duncan. Fowler forced Pinelli. Bancroft to Frisch. One run, three hits, no errors.

GERMANY has given in to French occupation of the Ruhr and will unconditionally abandon her policy of so-called passive resistance thereto.

Thus Poincaré, the French minister, wins a great victory in the face of fearful odds, for he had the open opposition of many sentimentalists, and he had to cope also with the more or less secret disloyalty of late allies, England and Italy. Had these two governments stood staunchly by the situation, there would have been composed long ago, indeed, it would never have assumed any proportion.

There is just one way to deal with Germany and that is to make her take her own medicine. Even at that she will be getting off better than France did when she lost to her in the seventies. Germany not only insisted then that she have her pound of flesh delivered instantly, but inflicted the humiliation of having her goosesteppers march into Paris.

Right there too is where the allies made their first great mistake in victory. They should have marched a division of all the allies and colonies, a great army, into Berlin. That would have shown the German people that their country was whipped and whipped utterly. It would have dethroned the war lords, Von Hindenburg and Ludendorff and the others, as they haven't been dethroned yet. It would have convinced the nation that the war ended in crushing defeat and not in a masterly military strategy. Real peace has been long delayed, order in world affairs has not been restored, because Germany never felt the tightening of the iron hand until the French seized the Ruhr. Hereafter, there must be no more temporizing. Germany seems at last to have gotten some idea she was whipped and will have to pay because she got whipped. She must be made to pay.

THE SAME EVERYWHERE

THE federal judge, at Huntington, in instructing the grand jury, diverged far from the ordinary, to say that the duty of the citizen was to aid the officials in enforcing the law. That if the private individual had knowledge of infractions of the Volstead act, he was bound, as a good citizen, to promptly inform the authorities thereof.

That sounds real elegant coming from the bench, but 50 per cent of the population is not going to turn itself into spies and informers, even if it might have to go to jail therefore. It is obnoxious to an innate sense of self respect.

The learned judge is simply talking up in the air. Nevertheless, he has sent the two Huntington papers into an acrimonious dispute as to whether or not the town has gone back in this respect. One maintains it has and the other that it has not; at least it parades a lot of figures to show how much more vigilant the new administration has been in seeking out and punishing violators than was the old. It's conclusive query is: If every year a community convicts more of the rum kings, lodges vastly more bootleggers in jail, and yet the illicit traffic continues to grow, what are you going to do about it?

That's a puzzler for sure. We can't answer it, but set it down as a certainty, the people en masse are not going to turn either sleuth or spy. They'll continue to do just as most officials are doing, wink the eye and pass on the other side of the street.

An old "young flapper" on the shady side of sixty with her cheeks painted a bright red in a clown fashion, walking down the street feeling like a million dollars and looking like thirty cents.

Two young men disturbing the peaceful slumbers of a respectable neighborhood while returning from a lark at 2:45 a. m. by their loud talking and attempts to "throw off" their surplus load of white noise.

Business women picking sweetie up two nights out of each week, near N. & W. depot. Oh, you little brats! Amateur carpenter pounding nails by the light of the moon. He actually hit one on the head about every third stroke of the hammer.

Nardi Back From Europe; Took Motorcycle With Him

Elmer Nardi, of 1553 Sixth street, returned home Sunday night from a delightful three months' tour of Europe. While away he spent some time with his parents who reside in Naples, Italy. Mr. Nardi made the trip over on the Julius Caesar, landing at Naples, Italy, and the return trip was made on the giant liner Majestic, leaving Cherbourg, France. The trip home was made in five days. Mr. Nardi had his motorcycle with him and he was able to take many delightful side trips and visit places of interest that he would not have been able to do otherwise.

New York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—It is the custom of gentle pilgrims who come to New York seeking relief from Main Street to begin with Greenwich Village. Here they expect to find romance, crime, Bohemia and that vague emanation tagged as "atmosphere."

Of course, the hungry shopkeepers welcome them with sweeping genuflections. They will tell you of the sordid vortex of vice, free love and nutty art, but what the stranger usually finds in his hunt for thrills and exotic depravity are innocent Bronxites and Flatbush flappers. The true atmosphere of Greenwich Village is provided by those who really struggle in obscurity. They are trying to pay the rent and they are seldom seen in the tawdry carousals of the Village. The guides are monumental fakes.

They will point out Gyp the Gator as Jo Davidson, a café singer as Edna Millay, and a seedy café hangout as Eugene O'Neill. One cannot see the real village by a slumming excursion. There are just as many knives and cythereans up upper Broadway.

The only way to learn of the Village and its ways is to live there, and, strangely enough, one finds an increasing majority of decent and normal folk. The imposters flock there spotting racialism, Freudism and free love.

The potential genius of the Village are hidden away in attics. When they leave their attics they go uptown or to Long Island and Jersey. Most of the real Village boys never been to Manhattan. Barney Gallant's nose are they on speaking terms with Tiny Tim. Greenwich Village is really sensitive about the spring, sniffing curiosity seekers. The real Bohemia is not a phantom land. It is there, but it is not on display like a circus parade.

Reisenweber's, locked and barred because of prohibition violations, is a silent reminder of brass nights in the neighborhood of Columbus Circle. It mingled the high and low. In the late afternoon the hard-boiled women, husky from gin, seeped there from the West Fifties for the early "pick-me-up." It was a crew of wise cracking vulgarities who were representative of the days when Broadway drank its liquor straight. At night Reisenweber's patronage was refused and the best people went there.

More than 200 New York wives have gone to Paris this season for week-end divorces. That is one trouble, of course, one must remain at least over the week-end to have the knot untied. And, what with the morning and doings at Deauville, it is a awful bore.

And, speaking of divorce, the old Ludlow Prison, the home of those who were reluctant in paying, all money is to be abandoned. This was a prison in name only. Those who were there for alimony collection had their nights along Broadway in company with guards. The day was spent in the courtyard playing the great American game of crav, reading the best of books and sending out for all the food delicacies the neighboring restaurants afforded.

I happened into a Broadway restaurant the other evening just as it was opening for trade. The Greek hat snatcher put three half dollars and two quarters on the plate where patrons were supposed to place tips. The half dollars and quarters were "decoys" placed there as an insinuation to pickers that nickels and dimes are simply unheard of. In a moment of confidence he told me New Yorkers always gave the half dollars. He said the man from out of town rarely tipped more than a dime—which speaks endless praise for the provincials. Love Song In Autumn
(From Yancy Fair)
The wind comes down before the creeping night
And then, my love, art hid within the green
Long grasses. And the dark steals up between
Each leaf as through the shadow
quick with fright
The startled hare leaps up and out of sight.

The hedges whisper in their loaded
boughs
Where water birds slumber, pressing wing to wing.
All pulsing faintly, like a muted
string
Above us, where we weary of our rows—
And, hidden underground, the soft moles drowse.

Improving His Condition
A hectoring old lady was walking along the street when she observed a beggar. She stopped and looked with compassionate sympathy at the man, and then placed a coin in his hand.

"My poor fellow," she consoled, "here is a quarter for you. I am sure, though I think it is worse to be blind."

"Ver right, lady," agreed the beggar. "When I was blind I was always getting counterfeit money."

Plain Talk From Isadore
Isadore Rosenbaum went into business. Among his customers was a miserly fellow named Cassidy, who wouldn't settle.

When his clerk told him about it, Rosenbaum said: "What kind of a letter did you write?" The clerk told him, and Rosenbaum said, "That's no kind of a letter to write," and sat down and wrote the following:

Mr. Cassidy: Who bought those goods of us? You. Who promised to pay in sixty days? You. Who's a dirty leaver? Yours truly, Isadore Rosenbaum.

WOMAN TRIES TO STAGE REAL HOLD UP NEAR WHEELERSBURG; PLANS FRUSTRATED

Was there a woman "holdup artist" at work near Wheelersburg last night?

That is the all puzzling question confronting Samuel Lemaster of that village and Fred Ashley, traction car motorman, Lemaster, who got off the midnight traction car at Wheelersburg, claims the woman attempted to stop him on the road just after he left the car. He says she was hiding in the weeds by the side of the road and as he approached, she jumped up, hurried into the road and ordered him to stop.

Lemaster thinking that the woman had a male assistant in a holdup game, did not pay heed to her command, but instead took a hasty retreat for home from where he notified the sheriff's office. The police were notified and Captain Lee Startzman and Officer Amick went to the scene but could not find any trace of the woman. Traction car motorman Lemaster reported seeing a woman standing in the shadow of a tree near the traction stop as his car approached the stop.

The woman may be a confederate of the couple caught near Wheelersburg after they attempted to hold up several auto parties returning from a dance in Russell, Ky. The couple now languish in the county jail. They were armed with revolvers and stopped machines under the pretense of asking for gasoline. Among machines they stopped were those driven by Ralph Frowine and Howard Watkins of this city.

U. B. Church News

Now that the members of the United Brethren Sunday school know what the big 5 means, they are planning for a day of celebration next Sunday.

After many, many guesses had been made as to what the 5 stood for the Superintendent, M. W. Prosch, gave the correct answer when he announced that it was the 5th Anniversary of the dedication of the new church. So on next Sunday, in both the Sunday school and morning worship period, the time will be given over to a proper celebration of the 5th birthday of the beautiful temple of worship at Seventh and Gay sts.

An unusual offering will be one of the features of the Sunday school session. Every member has been asked to increase their offering at least 5 fold, and the goal has been set at $200 to be received.

The attendance goal has been set at 500 and with the promotion exercises and the Anniversary Day programs as attractions this figure should be easily reached.

THE much-traveled lady was talking about

The various parts of her tour: "The Rockies," she said, "I'm rather in doubt! We crossed through some mountains, I'm sure, but what was the name of the mountain ridge?

But what I can't seem to recall. Some people I met played such marvellous bridge I scarce looked at mountains at all!

"YOSEMITE VALLEY? Oh, how gorgeous, indeed. So wide and so splendid and bare! Not bare? Well, I didn't pay very much heed."

For when I was touring up there We got to discussing the right suits to bid, And how one should play every hand;

I learned a whole lot about bridge; The scenery?—er—it was grand!"

As when from her trip she returned. She has no impressions that she can impart. But what of the bridge that she learned? (Copyright, 1923, NEA Service, Inc.)

Rister Found Guilty Of Possessing Still*BULLETIN

After being out over two hours the jury returned a verdict of guilty. Attorney Small gave notice that he will file a motion for a new trial and pending its disposal, Rister will be released on bond. Under the new Bender law Judge Thomas has no alternative, the possession of a still being a penitentiary offense. Rister was the first to be tried in Seoto County under this act.

Hardin Rister was brought to trial before Judge Thomas and the petit jury in Common Pleas Court this morning under an indictment charging him with manufacturing distilled liquor in violation of a new law, the provisions of which make the offense, on conviction, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary.

Deputy Sheriffs Elza Canter and Robert Reno, the arresting officers, were the principal witnesses for the state. They related of a raid which they staged on the morning of August 28 last when they visited the head of Pond Run, West Side, and told of finding as a result of a search a moonshine making outfit, consisting of a fifty-gallon, capacity copper still, 16 barrels of mash and some eight or nine gallons of the finished product, together with a large quantity of sugar and yeast, in a hollow short distance from the defendant's home. The officer stated that a fire was under the still and that Rister was there "setting" mash at the time. The finished liquor was found secreted some 150 yards from the still, the officers testified.

Virgil Fowler, a local chemist, testified as to the result of an analysis of a sample of the liquor. He stated that the alcoholic content was 58 per cent by volume or more than 100 proof, adding that it was a good grade of "moon."

The defendant on the stand in his own behalf denied that he had ever used the outfit found near his home for manufacturing liquor and told a story of having discovered the still, where it was found a few days before while hunting his cows. He admitted on cross-examination that he was engaged in "setting" mash at the time of the officers' visit.

The evidence was brief and Attorney H. L. Small, who defended the accused, waived a rebuttal argument. Prosecutor S. A. Skelton had finished his opening argument for the state, the case going to the jury shortly after 10 o'clock, following the court's general charge.

The jury, through its foreman, Ralph Mansfield, reported to the court that they were hopelessly divided, but a majority of the jurors were of the opinion that a verdict could be reached which prompted Judge Thomas to send the jury out for lunch and they considered the case further on their return.

Will Formally Open Road Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon, three o'clock is the day and hour for the Gallia Pike road dedication, the ceremonies to be participated in by citizens of Portsmouth and Seoto county and Ironton and Lawrence, county of Forest Academy, east of Franklin Furnace. The program Thursday afternoon will consist mainly of two short addresses by Mayor Earl Stewart of Ironton, and Mayor William N. Gableman, of Portsmouth, the remarks by these officials to be followed by a general exchange of greetings between the citizens of the two counties.

The Ironton Chamber of Commerce is to erect a large arch over the roadway where the exercises will be held. All local persons who intend to attend are urged to meet on Gallia street, just east of Waller street between 1:30 and 2 o'clock. All machines are to leave at two o'clock so that the exercises may begin promptly at three o'clock.

Every local automobile owner who can is urged to take part in the road dedication. Ironton is planning to have a big crowd present and word from that city is that every effort is being made to have a larger turnout than Portsmouth. The official opening of the permanent improved road between Ironton and Portsmouth was last week, when work was completed on a new five mile stretch.
